

Current topics for qualification theses (BA & MA) at the chair of Prof. Dr. Antoinette Weibel

Applications for Bachelor's and Master's theses require a short (max. 10 sentences) written letter of motivation, your curriculum vitae, a current transcript of grades and your participation in a seminar held by Prof. Dr. Antoinette Weibel or Dr. Meike Wiemann-Hügler. Ideally, you should have prior knowledge of research methods or have the time and motivation to familiarise yourself with specific methods.

All topics can be worked on in German or English. Please send your written application to the respective contact person listed below - thank you very much.

Topic	Contact person
1. Leadership by Algorithm – Qualitative analysis of expert interviews on the influence of technologies on responsible leadership (practice project)	Alice Rickert Alice.rickert@unisg.ch
2. A Re-Conceptualisation of the Conceptual Understanding of Responsibility in Responsible Leadership Theory (Master Thesis)	Alice Rickert Alice.rickert@unisg.ch
3. Further development of a questionnaire to measure responsible leadership orientations	Alice Rickert Alice.rickert@unisg.ch
4. The Morality of Leadership – Literature review	Alice Rickert Alice.rickert@unisg.ch
5. Leadership Experiments in the New Age – Literature review	Alice Rickert Alice.rickert@unisg.ch
6. Crises in inter-organisational relations - document analysis on mistrust in inter-organisational relations (practical project)	Yeschi Deuss Yeschi.deuss@unisg.ch
7. Human Flourishing at the Workplace – A Qualitative Exploration	Sara Fontanet sara.fontanet@student.unisg.ch

8. Moral Activists – Winning Others for Your Cause

Sara Fontanet

sara.fontanet@student.unisg.ch

9. Ethical Decision-Making – A Virtue Ethics Approach

Sara Fontanet

sara.fontanet@student.unisg.ch

10. Virtuous Leadership – Identifying its Antecedents

Sara Fontanet

sara.fontanet@student.unisg.ch